

Enthroned (Psalm 22)

E            E9                            A
My God I cry out to you            I cry, and cry, by day all day
E            E9                            A
By night I cry out to you            But you, but you do not respond

E            E9    A
My God, My God                            Why have you forsaken me?
E            E9    A
Why God, Why God                        Are you so far away from me?

Chorus:

A B
Yet you are
E            C#m                            A
Enthroned as the holy one
B            E            C#m
In you our fathers put their trust
A B
The one... who delivers us
E E9 A

E                            E9                            A
You brought me out of the womb    You made, you made me trust in you
E                            E9                            A
From birth, from my mother's womb You cast, You cast me upon you

E            E9    A
My God, My God                            Be not far, trouble is near
E            E9    A
Why God, Why God                        Is there no one to help me here?
